Alberta Fencing Association Membership

In order to participate in fencing classes, club activities and competitions, each fencer must join The Alberta Fencing Association (AFA). There are three membership levels to choose from, depending on what level of participation in AFA events you wish to have:

- Trial (6 weeks) Membership (TRIAL) $5

Trial membership is available to athletes new to the sport of fencing who participate in club practices and club or AFA outreach/community programs. Trial-level members may compete in no tournaments, enroll in no AFA courses or clinics, and may not participate in classes or programming over the course of more than 6 weeks.

- Associate (Recreational) Membership (ASSC) $20

The associate membership category allows individuals to partake in classes and events at affiliated clubs. Benefits include: Liability insurance coverage; Supporting the development of coaching and refereeing in Alberta; Administrative coordination between the clubs, provinces and the Canadian Fencing Federation; Ability to sign up for various courses and events offered by the AFA.

- Competitive Membership (COMP) $55

The competitive membership category provides all of the services of the associated membership level, as well as: The ability to participate at a competitive level in Alberta and at out-of-province/country events; Being included in the Alberta Provincial rankings, and being eligible for performance funding; Subsidizing referees for provincial competition; Subsidizing the purchase and maintenance of provincial tournament equipment.
